

Timeline: Subdivision and Adjacency Rule Revisions

April 2014: Outreach to stakeholders, including land owners, environmental groups, technical consultants, and others regarding subdivision layout and design

September 2014: Online survey re subdivisions; open to the public

October 2014: Workshop with panel of experts to discuss subdivision rule concepts

November 2014—April, 2015: Facilitated group meetings with stakeholders to discuss and prioritize issues

December 2015—January, 2016: Focus group meetings with stakeholders to discuss topics related to layout and design of subdivisions

February 2016: Commission begins review of adjacency for subdivisions and all types of development

April 2016—May 2017: Creation, distribution, and analysis of public survey of property owners of record (2,000+ responses)

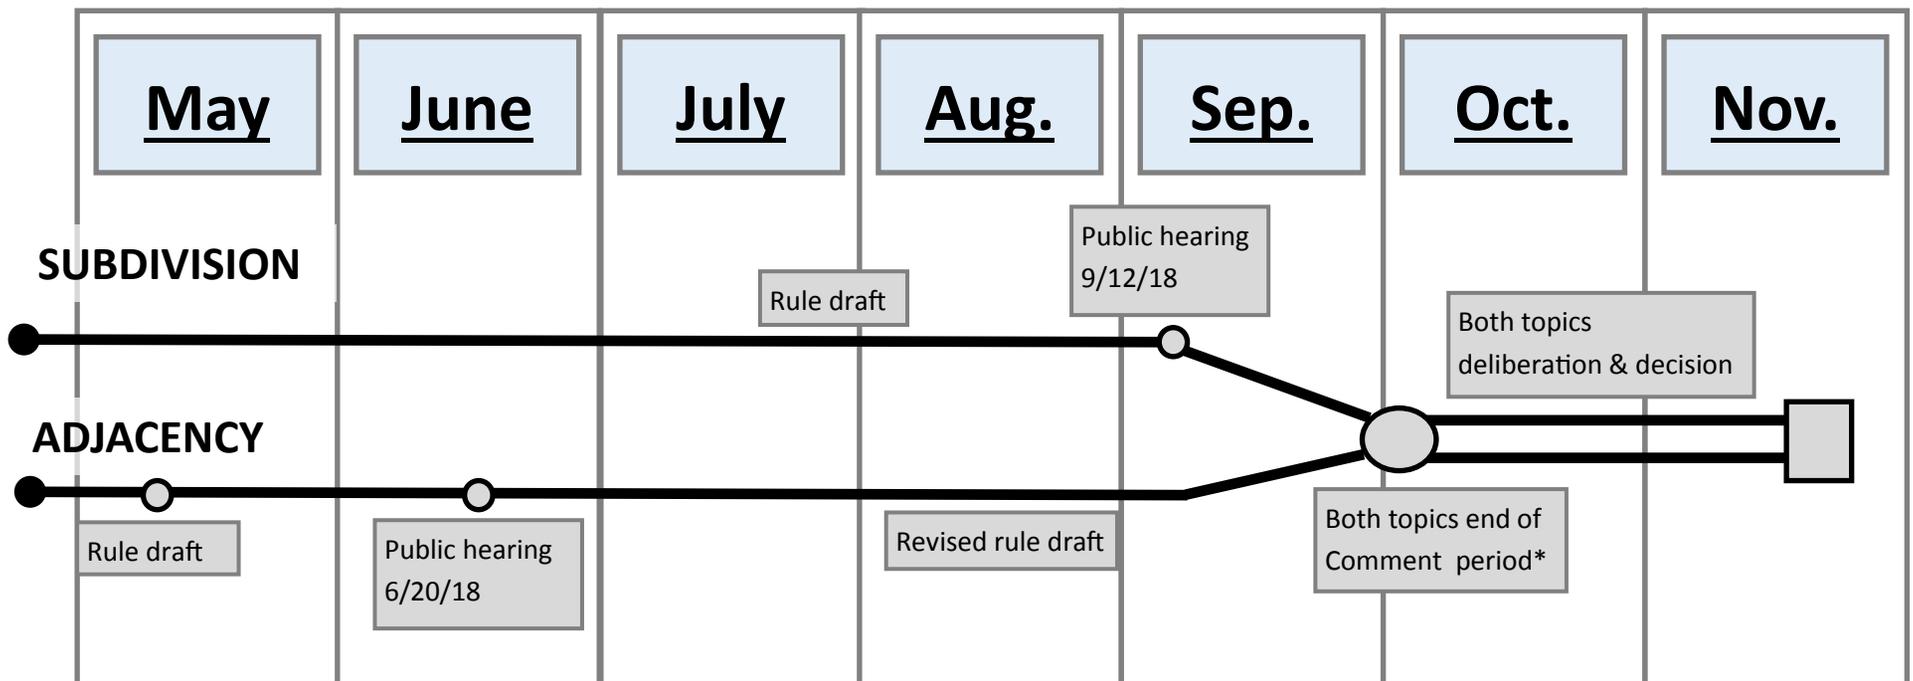

June—July 2017: Stakeholder focus group meetings to discuss economic development, issues important to property owners, conservation & wild-life, & provision of public services

August 2017: Public comment on proposed new planning framework

February 2018: Commission consideration of proposed adjacency rule concepts

April 2018: Public information meetings in Bingham and Millinocket

April 2018: Written and oral public comment opportunity on proposed adjacency rule concepts

May—Nov.2018

*Notes:

- Written comment period ends 9/24/2018
- Rebuttal comment period ends 10/1/2018